1 INTRODUCTION

Another year of releases and exhibitions that bear witness to Dylan’s varied interests and pursuits. He performed 84 times in concerts across Europe, the Far East, and both the southern United States and the East Coast. His masterpiece Blood on the Tracks received a completist’s treatment, with a 6-disc album featuring all surviving outtakes and recordings from the 1974 sessions. 2018 also saw the release of Dylan’s Heaven’s Door whiskey and Mondo Scripto: an exhibition of handwritten lyrics accompanied by drawings by Dylan.

2 2018 AT A GLANCE

3 THE 2018 CALENDAR

- 23 January First reports appear of the death of Echo Star Casey née Helstrom, Dylan’s high-school sweetheart and purported inspiration for “Girl From the North Country.” She died the previous week in California at the age of 75.
- 7 February Actor and drummer Mickey Jones, who replaced Sandy Konikoff (and before him, Bobby Gregg who replaced Levon Helm) for the final 22 performances of Dylan’s legendary 1965-1966 world tour, passes away in Houston, Texas at the age of 76. Jones’s home movies of traveling with Dylan were produced as a DVD in 2004 as Bob Dylan – World Tour 1966: The Home Movies.
- Early March Sony Music Germany releases a remix of Masters Of War, available only as a download. The remix is done by The Aveners (Tristan Casara), a French house and electro music producer.
- 12 March Charlie Quintana, drummer for The Plugz, The Cruzados, and Social Distortion dies of a heart attack at the age of 56. He both performed with Dylan during the 1984 Late Night with David Letterman performance and toured with Dylan in 1992.
- 22 March A 26-date tour of Europe begins with a first-ever performance in Lisbon, Portugal. Set lists are very similar to those of 2017, with the average number of American Standards per night reduced from five to three. The constituency of the band remains unchanged since 2013.
- 20 April Record Store Day. Dylan contributes a performance of “He’s Funny That Way” (originally “She’s Funny That Way”) for the vinyl EP, Universal Love – Wedding Songs Reimagined.

The Aveners remix of Masters Of War is released on 7” vinyl with a longer version of the remix on the B-side.
- 21 May Orders start shipping for Dylan’s new whiskey label, Heaven’s Door. The initial batch includes three varieties: Double Barrel, Tennessee Straight Bourbon, and Straight Rye.
- 22 May American novelist Philip Roth dies in New York City at the age of 85.
- 24 May On Dylan’s 77th birthday, the University of Tulsa issues a call for papers for the first ever World of Bob Dylan Symposium, to be co-hosted by the Institute for Bob Dylan Studies and Bob Dylan Archive in Tulsa, Oklahoma in 2019.
- 25 May The Drawn Blank Series: 10th Anniversary goes on display at 36 locations of Castle Fine Arts Galleries throughout Europe with signed reproductions available starting at £2,000.
- 27 May Sony Legacy releases the 2-disc, 29-track Live 1962-1966: Rare Performances from the Copyright Collections.
- 20 July News emerges of a July 26, 1975 letter from Dylan to musician and singer Debbie Green selling in a Boston-based RR Auction for $29,645. In the one-page handwritten letter, Dylan invites Green to sing on Desire.
- 27 July Dylan returns to South Korea for the first time since 2010 to launch a 16-show tour of Asia, Australia, and New Zealand. He all but eliminates American Standards from the setlist in favour of self-penned songs. He performs the first renditions of “Gotta Serve Somebody” and “When I Paint My Masterpiece” since 2011, which strikes Rolling Stone as significant enough to make note of it on its website.
- 16 August Queen of Soul, Aretha Franklin, dies in Detroit, Michigan at the age of 76. Dylan portrays Aretha as a muse in Tarantula, beginning his book with the invocation, “aretha/ crystal jukebox queen of hymn.”
- 28 August Dylan’s tour of Asia, Australia, and New Zealand concludes in Christchurch.

- 31 August Having subsisted as an online-only publication for a year, The Village Voice, founded in 1955, publishes its last article online. It continues to maintain a website and social media accounts.
- 1 October French singer and songwriter, Charles Aznavour, dies in Mouriés, France at the age of 94. Dylan has covered Aznavour's "The Times We've Known" in concert.
- 4 October Dylan begins a 42-night tour of southern and eastern United States with one less band member. After playing rhythm guitar with Dylan for 14 years – from 2004 to 2018 – Stu Kimball departs amicably and is not replaced. During this tour, Dylan entirely drops American Standards from his setlists.
- 9 October Mondo Scripto, a collection of sixty of Dylan's lyrics, each handwritten (some featuring lyrical revisions that have appeared in concert in recent years) by Dylan and accompanied by a single drawing also by Dylan is exhibited in London's Halcyon Gallery until December 23. The exhibition catalogue includes a new interview with Dylan, "Bob Dylan on Mondo Scripto": "A song is really a form of storytelling that changes from minute to minute, and adapts itself to different circumstances. A painting is a fixed scene, where something is nailed down and made permanent. You can't leave holes in the centre. With songs you can do that. I wouldn't mix the two or try to force them together, because they have nothing in common."
- 2 November Bootleg Series Vol. 14: More Blood, More Tracks, is released in both single-disc ("standard edition") and 6-disc ("deluxe edition") formats. This installment of the Bootleg Series features all of the NYC recordings for Blood on the Tracks made in September of 1974 and remixes of the five recordings from Minnesota in December of 1974 that were included on Blood on the Tracks. The remaining Minnesota recordings are reported as lost.
- 6 November While playing The Johnny Mercer Theater in Savannah, Georgia, Dylan offers a tribute by finishing his encore with Johnny Mercer's "Moon River," only the second time he has played it since 1990.
- 7 November The following night, Dylan debuts James Brown's "It's a Man's Man's World" while playing Brown's hometown of Augusta, Georgia. Dylan continues to play the song for the following three performances.
- 11 November Wildfires in Malibu threaten Dylan's Point Dume home, but ultimately pass it by.
- 13 November Dylan debuts Freddie King's "San-Ho-Zay" in Youngstown, Ohio and also plays it the following night in Rochester, New York. King cut "San-Ho-Zay" and other blues-guitar-based instrumentals for both King Records and Federal Records, both out of Cincinnati, Ohio.
- 23 November Dylan appears on The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon, doing a bit with Fallon wherein the two watch a private performance of the Big Apple Circus and drink Heaven's Door bourbon.
- 3 December Dylan wraps up his touring for the year in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania after a 7-night residency at the Beacon Theatre in New York.

4.4 Bootleg Series Vol. 14: More Blood, More Tracks

4.4.1 Description

- Strictly limited Deluxe 6 CD Set
- Includes every surviving take from Blood On The Tracks, including the complete New York sessions.
- Features alternate versions of “Tangled Up In Blue”, “Simple Twist Of Fate” and “Shelter From The Storm”
- Over 70 previously unreleased recordings
- Bonus hardcover book features original handwritten lyrics, photographs and more

The 6CD full-length deluxe version includes the complete New York sessions in chronological order including outtakes, false starts and studio banter. The album's producers have worked from best sources available, in most cases utilizing the original multi-track session tapes. They also restored all tracks to their original speed, unlike the 2-3% sped-up versions previously heard.

The only recordings remaining from the Minneapolis sessions are the multi-track masters of the five performances included on the finished

Blood On The Tracks album. Each of these has been remixed and remastered for the deluxe edition.

The deluxe box set is a strictly limited edition. The set includes a hardcover photo book featuring liner notes by rock historian Jeff Slate and a complete reproduction of one of Dylan's legendary handwritten 57 page notebooks, where you can follow the lyrical development of the songs that would eventually comprise Blood On The Tracks.

6 NEW BOOKS

Selections from the never-ending flood of Dylan books:

Derek Barker: Too Much Of Nothing

Red Planet 2018. Hardback 320 pages.

When Bob Dylan picked up a silver cross thrown on stage in San Diego and found Jesus in late 1978, it ended a search that had begun when his career crashed to a halt in 1966. “Too Much of Nothing” begins with that motorcycle accident and traces Dylan’s long journey of discovery that culminated with his finding Jesus in 1978-79.

Jeff Berger: Dylan on Dylan. Interviews and Encounters.

Chicago Review Press 2018. Hardback, 544 pages.

Dylan on Dylan is an authoritative, chronologically arranged anthology of interviews, speeches, and press conferences, as well as excerpts from more than eighty additional Q&As spanning Dylan's entire career – from 1961 through 2016. The majority have not been previously anthologized and some have never before appeared in print. The material comes from renowned media outlets like Rolling Stone and TV's 60 Minutes and from obscure periodicals like Minnesota Daily, a student newspaper at Dylan's alma mater. Interviewers include some of the top writers of our time, such as Jonathan Lethem, Douglas Brinkley, and Mikal Gilmore, as well as musicians like Pete Seeger and Happy Traum. Introductions put each piece in context and, in many cases, include the interviewer's reminiscences about the encounter.

Luca Grossi: Bob Dylan in Hell. Songs in Dialogue with Dante - part I

Arcana Editrice 2018. Softback, 126 pages.

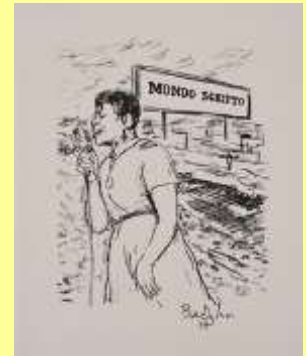

Bob Dylan in Hell is an original and valiant reinterpretation of Dante’s Inferno tuned with an illustrious soundtrack: ten songs by the songwriter who won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2016. What does Bob Dylan have in common with Dante? What is the point of descending into Hell through American songs? Everything starts in 1975 with Blood on the Tracks. The blood emerges from eternal wounds, from the shadows where damned souls are suffering. If we listen to the characters in Dante’s poem and we confront their words with some of Dylan’s verses, we realize that the same snares, the same evil intentions inhabit people of every time and place. For that reason, real poetry keeps furiously echoing from Hell the universal principles that we are too often guilty of forgetting. In this sense, Dante is as contemporary as Dylan and Dylan is as profound as Dante. These two great authors both sing with a mighty, poetic voice that directly addresses every single one of us. This book is an invitation to listen to their voices.

Bob Dylan: Mondo Scripto Exhibition Catalogue

Halcyon Gallery 2018. Softback.

The lyrics to sixty of Dylan's songs handwritten by him, including in some cases some lyrical revisions; each song includes a one-page pencil drawing by Dylan meant to capture a (usually literal) event, feeling, or mood of the song.

Donna M. George: Bittersweet Love Songs of Bob Dylan.

Independently published 2018. Softback, 163 pages.

This book brings awareness to the romantic side of Bob Dylan, and the love songs that have been overshadowed by his formidable songs of protest and social commentary. Dylan applies the same intellectual and emotional honesty to songs of the heart as to the rest of his life's work, and his songs about relationships are rendered with typical profundity. The songs in this book are organized into themes such as Hard Love, Bitter Love, Lost Love, and Spiritual Love, to name a few. Like the rest of us, Dylan has soared and crashed, and suffered the pain of ill-fated relationships. These songs reflect his experiences with love and loss over a lifetime, from youth to maturity and beyond. The author describes Dylan's lyrics from a woman's point of view, approaching his words with common sense and a bit of feminine intuition. The reader will benefit from her research into other versions of the songs, and covers by various artists. This book offers a fresh look at the legendary Bob Dylan, who describes the agonies of love with grit and eloquence, as only such a brilliant poet and musical artist can.

Leif Gjerstad: Kalvøyafestivalen. En musikalisk tidsreise.

Absolutt forlag 2018. Hardback, 362 pages. In Norwegian.

In 1971, the Kalvøya festival was held for the first time, and after only a couple of years it had established itself as the largest and most important (rock) music festival in Norway. The festival became a term for all music fans, and this position retained Kalvøya until 1997, the last year the festival was held. Dylan appeared both in June 1990 and in June 1991.

Nina Goss: Tearing The World Apart. Bob Dylan and The Twenty-First Century.

University Press Of Mississippi in Jackson 2018. Hardback, 196 pages.

Tearing the World Apart participates in the creation of the postmillennial Bob Dylan by exploring three central records of the 21st century: "Love and Theft" (2001), Modern Times (2006), and Tempest (2012) – along with the 2003 film Masked and Anonymous, which Dylan helped write and in which he appears as an actor and musical performer.

Clinton Heylin: No One Else Could Play That Tune. The Making and Unmaking of Bob Dylan's 1974 Masterpiece.

Route 2018. Wanted Man Study Series Take II, Hardback, 125 pages.

‘This is a really excellent read. If you’re a Dylan fan it is a must have and, even if you’re not, this is one of the finest pieces of forensic analysis of a major album that you are ever likely to read – which makes it a must have.’ Americana UK

No One Else Could Play That Tune is the perfect companion to the all-singing all-dancing boxed set of the complete New York sessions for Dylan’s fabled Blood On The Tracks: More Blood, More Tracks.

John Howells: Skipping Reels of Rhyme. A Guide to Rare and Unreleased Bob Dylan Recordings.

Tangible Press 2018. Hardback, 350 pages.

In 1994, the first comprehensive website devoted to the works of Bob Dylan was created. This book presents some of the original articles written for the site, concentrating on the unreleased tapes of Bob Dylan, with commentary on the merits of each tape. Since the articles were written, most of the music described on the site has seen official or semi-official release, but the content contained in this book still holds relevance and acts as a sort of field guide to what's still out there.

Robert Hudson and David Dalton: The Monk's Record Player: Thomas Merton, Bob Dylan, and The Perilous Summer of 1966.

Wm. B. Erdmans Publishing 2018. Hardback, 247 pages.

In this striking parallel biography of two countercultural icons, Robert Hudson plumbs the depths of Dylan’s surprising influence on Merton’s life and writing, recounts each man’s interactions with the woman who linked them together – Joan Baez – and shows how each transcended his immediate troubles and went on to new heights of spiritual and artistic genius. Readers will discover here a riveting story of creativity and crisis, burnout and redemption, in the tumultuous era of 1960s America.

Mary Lee Kortez: Dreaming of Dylan: 115 Dreams About Bob

BMG Books 2018. Hardback, 160 pages.

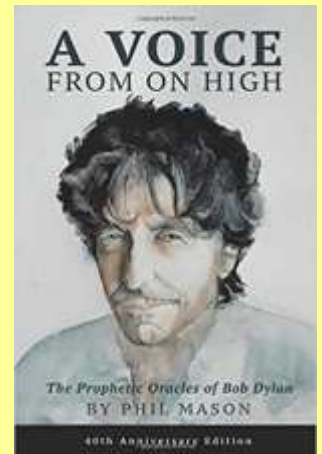

Perhaps the only subject more fascinating than the mysterious world of dreams is the mysterious world of Bob Dylan. Dreaming of Dylan brings the two together for a weird and wonderful romp through the ways the mercurial musical master shows up in our subconscious states. Celebrated writer and musician Mary Lee Kortez lovingly curated this off-kilter collection of nocturnal visions. Paired with over 100 original images and illustrations, these dreams will captivate you in ways you never expected. Bob Dylan once sang, “I’ll let you be in my dreams if I can be in yours.” And be in them he has! There are plenty of musical dreamers here, from the incomparable Patti Smith to Squirrel Nut Zippers frontman Jimbo Mathus to Kevin Odegard, whose guitar is heard on the memorable intro to “Tangled Up in Blue,” and others. Not to mention the everyday dreamers, from plumbers to poets and pastors, from dentists to attorneys and psychotherapists. Some dreams are poignant; some are disturbing; and others are nothing short of bizarre. Taken together they’re an enthralling look at what the famously enigmatic singer/songwriter represents in the deepest recesses of our minds.

Phil Mason: A Voice From On High. The Prophetic Oracles of Bob Dylan. Independently published 2018. Softback, 708 pages.

Phil Mason builds a compelling case by contextualizing Dylan's songs against the backdrop of both Old and New Testament theology, in particular the genre of the prophetic oracle. His conclusion is that Dylan is a deep theological thinker with a passion for the mystical dimension of hearing the living voice of God and re-telling the ancient gospel story in language that will speak to the hearts of those who are seekers of the truth. Dylan's personal passion for truth shines through each of the songs explored in this ground-breaking book. This is compelling reading for all who value Dylan's art and who seek a deeper understanding of his poetry and his theological worldview. One thing is for sure: after reading Dylan through the lens of such rich biblical theology, you will never listen to Dylan the same way again!

Anne-Marie Mai: Bob Dylan The Poet
University Press of Southern Denmark 2018.
Softback, 175 pages.

In this book Anne-Marie Mai talks seriously about the components of poetry in Dylans Work. She focuses on Words, Rhymes, Charakters and Places and tries to track down a phenomena, which she calls „personal attunement“. As a starting point for her thoughts she uses the Actor-Network-Theory of Latour, to explain, why every work of art, when it comes to an attunement, has its many actors. Thats her main apporoach, to look even on Dylans personal attunements like the Pirate Jenny-Song of Brecht and to think about, how a song becomes part of our lives and perhaps change it.

Joel Isaiah McIntyre: May Your Song Always Be Sung: An Introduction to Bob Dylan's Poetry.
lulu.com 2018. Softback, 99 pages,

The reader will enjoy a journey throughout Bob Dylan's poetry and will understand why he won the Nobel Prize for Literature.

Thom Tommaro: Visiting Bob: Poems Inspired by the Life and Work of Bob Dylan.
New Rivers Press 2018. Softback, 128 pages.

100 poets inspired by the life and works of Bob Dylan. Contributors include Robert Bly, Charles Bukowski, Johnny Cash, Diane di Prima, Lawrence Ferlinghetti, Allen Ginsberg, Tony Hoagland, Yusef Komunyakaa, Dorianne Laux, Paul Muldoon, Linda Pastan, Patti Smith, and Charles Wright.

Daryl Sanders: *That Thin, Wild Mercury Sound: Dylan, Nashville, and the Making of Blonde On Blonde.

Chicago Review Press 2018. Hardback, 256 pages.

"The Dylan of That Thin, Wild Mercury Sound is not a freak or a throwback or a futurist, a prophet or a conjurer. He is, instead, a young adult becoming a musical professional, learning to collaborate with other musicians in order to both realize his vision and also how to stand his ground. Daryl Sanders is a diligent researcher and interviewer, driven by his own passion for Dylan's work and the then-ripening Nashville music world that was a near perfect setting for Dylan in 1966. More than the story of making a record album, That Thin, Wild Mercury Sound is about learning the rules of a complicated profession, and then smashing many of them. Several generations of rock singers, musicians, critics, historians, and fans will be grateful for this book. I know I am." – Dave Marsh

Jerry Schatzberg: *Dylan by Schatzberg

ACC Art Books 2018. Hardback, 256 pages.

Filmmaker and renowned photographer Jerry Schatzberg's essential iconic photographs of Bob Dylan, including studio portraits, on-stage performances, recording studio outtakes and more, many published for the first time.

Stephen Scobie: *Always Other Voices. Writings on Bob Dylan in the 21st Century.

Two Riders 2018. Softback, 216 pages.

This new 214 page book by Stephen Scobie brings together various articles produced in the 21st Century. These are from a variety of sources, and were initially addressed to different audiences. Some were written for Dylan magazines; others presented at academic conferences. Some assume readers already steeped in Dylan lore; others addressed to more general audiences. Some strike a professorial tone; some are frankly personal.

Larry David Smith: *Writing Dylan. The Songs of a Lonesome Traveler.

Praeger Publishing 2018. Hardback, 583 pages.

This study of Dylan's mission-driven music reveals a functional approach to art that not only sustained his 60-year career but forever changed an art form.

The second edition of Writing Dylan: The Songs of a Lonesome Traveler examines Nobel Laureate Bob Dylan's historic career, yielding unique insights into a distinctively American artist's creative world. The book opens with a short biography and description of Dylan's artistic method before diving into the seven missions of his life's work. Chapters are supported by song lyrics, of which the author's license agreement with Bob Dylan Music enables a definitive presentation.

Chris Wade: Bob Dylan Desire

lulu.com 2018. Softback, 100 pages.

In this book, writer, musician and filmmaker Chris Wade looks at Bob Dylan's hit album Desire, first released in January of 1976. Featuring the musical dynamics of Dylan, Scarlet Rivera on violin, Emmylou Harris on backing vocals, Rob Stoner on bass and Howie Wyeth on drums, not to mention the song writing contributions of Jacques Levy, the LP is one of the most remarkable and exotic of Dylan's long career. This book looks at the making of the album itself, the songs within, their meaning and power, as well as the record's importance in the whole of Dylan's oeuvre. Also includes snippets of interviews the author conducted with Rivera, Stoner, and engineer Don Meehan.

Mike Wyvill & John Wraith: Down A Dirty Road. Dylan's 2017 Concerts.

Two Riders 2018. Softback, 64 pages.

One in an ongoing series of Bob Dylan tour summaries. This volume features complete track listings of every 2017 show and is lavishly illustrated with photos, tickets, and other ephemera.
