1 INTRODUCTION

After eight years off the road, some call them "the lost years", 1974 found Dylan back on the road with a tour of North America backed by The Band, Tour '74. This was also the year when Dylan's marriage to Sara started to break up. This is documented in Blood On The Tracks which was recorded in the fall.

2 THE YEAR AT A GLANCE

7.6.3 Rare songs

As I Went Out One Morning - the only live performance of this song.

Hero Blues - two live performances of this unreleased song from 1962 with rewritten lyrics.

Fourth Time Around - after this single acoustic version there has only been one more, in Syracuse 22 September 1978, before 1999 when Dylan re-discovered it.

Visions Of Johanna - it took Dylan 15 years to try this one again.

7.6.4 Songs from Planet Waves

Tough Mama was played at the three first shows only, then dropped in favor of Just Like Tom Thumb's Blues.

Nobody 'Cept You was played only at the first part, later replaced by Just Like A Woman.

Forever Young started the electric part of the second set in every show.

Something There Is About You was the penultimate song in the second set during the first 25 shows, then suddenly replaced by Highway 61 Revisited for the rest of the tour. A pity.

Wedding Song was performed in the solo set at ten shows, mostly in the latter part of tour.
