1 INTRODUCTION

This year started with three months in Bible class at The School of Discipleship in Southern California, and ended with the first part of the famous Gospel Tour. Once again Bob Dylan did the completely unexpected. Not only did he become a newborn Christian, he recorded a gospel record with only original songs and hit the road with a show that did not contain one single song from his previous records!

5 THE FIRST GOSPEL TOUR

5.1 Introduction

The Gospel Tour that started in 1979 and continued in the spring of 1980, featured only gospel songs, either performed by the backup singers, or by Bob Dylan backed by the band. No songs from his other records were played. The setlist was almost constant from night to night. The audience responses were confused, angry and sometimes outright hostile. Many came to see a rock and roll show and were given a gospel concert. Dylan responded with long sermons between songs about the end of the world, the battle of Armageddon and the second coming. These lengthy raps are included in the session pages.

5.2 The show

A gospel concert consisted of:

- Set 1 6 songs by the backing singers plus Terry Young on piano
 8 or 9 songs by Bob Dylan and the band
 1 song by one of the backing singers and the band
- Set 2 7 songs by Bob Dylan and the band
- Encore 2 songs by Bob Dylan and the band

5.7 Comments

5.7.1 Recommended shows

All the Santa Monica shows are excellent and here Dylan performs in front of an enthusiastic audience, not all that common during this tour. The reason is that these were four benefit shows to aid World Vision International, a non-denominational Christian charity organization. In complete contrast the audiences at the two shows in Tempe are probably the most hostile Dylan has ever played to, before and since. The second show in particular features some lengthy angry raps by Dylan and is unique in that Dylan refused to play any encores.

5.7.2 Songs

The Slow Train Coming outtake Ain't No Man Righteous, No Not One is performed 16 November. This is one of three known versions of this great song.

⁴ electric and acoustic versions are counted as different songs.

⁵ a song is counted as unique regardless of how it is performed.

⁶ variation is computed as the quote between number of different songs and mean number of performed songs.
