BobTalk

Thank you. We're gonna slow it down some with Regina McCrary from Nashville, Tennessee, a voluntary state! She's gonna sing a song called Gonna Keep On Falling In Love Until I Get It Right.

Thank you, that was an animal song, this is a farm song. (before Maggie's Farm)

We just recorded a new album. Does anybody out there speak English? Right, this is on our new album we just did it's called Dead Man Dead Man When Will You Arise.

I wish you'd said that before. What key is that in? (before Knockin' On Heaven's Door)

.... three long years, name's Carolyn Dennis. She came here with me before she's gonna sing a song, same song she sang last time, called Walking Around Heaven All Day. Carolyn Dennis.

All right here's another new song recently recorded on our forthcoming album. Should be released by (...). Anyway it's called Watered Down Love. You don't want a love that's pure. You wanna drown love, you want a watered-down love.

Thank you. Merci Beaucoup! We enjoyed playing for you tonight. I hope you heard something that you came to hear. Over on the left there is Carolyn Dennis. Standing next to her is Regina McCrary, Madelyn Quebec. On the keyboards tonight, I think William S. Smith from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On guitars, Fred Tackett and Steve Ripley. I'm not gonna say which one's which! On the drums Jimmy Lee Keltner from Tulsa Oklahoma. If you ever come over to the United States you come and see us now. We're always playing around someplace over there. Anyway on the bass guitar of course, Mr. Tim Drummond from Cincinnati, Ohio. See you again! (at the end of In The Garden)

BobTalk

Merci Beaucoup! Thank you very much. We're gonna slow things down here some. This is Regina McCrary from Nashville Tennessee. Where they make all them country and western records. She's gonna sing a song for you called, what you gonna sing tonight Regina? Keep On Falling? Keep On Falling In Love Until I Get It Right.

Thank you. We're gonna do another animal song here. Kind of different, different kind of animal. This animal, this is a man animal. (before Maggie's Farm)

Thank you. We have a new song we recently recorded about a month ago. Called, should be coming out sometime soon. if you know exactly when, you call up the record company I record for. whatever one that is today. actually, that is CBS records. Anyway, this song should be on that album, I hope it is anyway. It's called Dead Man Dead Man When Will You Arise.

I'm gonna turn the stage over right now to Carolyn Dennis. Girl who's been with me now for oh, maybe 4...., 4 or 5 years. Came here last time I came here. She was with me, Carolyn Dennis. She's gonna sing a song called Walking Around Heaven All Day.

Thank you. We're gonna do another new song. This song is uhh, I don't know if any of you ever heard of a comedian named Lenny Bruce? Anybody ever heard of him? Anyway this is about err, one day I was just outside, just wrote this song in about five minutes.

Merci. This is another song off that forthcoming album, called Shot Of Love. This is called Watered-Down Love. You don't want a love that's pure, you want a drowned love, you want a watered-down love.

Thank you. Merci, Merci, and another Merci. Merci beaucoup. I wanna introduce these girls over here. Fine girls, you have to go a long ways to hear singers as good as that, you know that. Anyway on the left, you met this young girl earlier. Actually she's not so young! Miss Carolyn Dennis. Standing next to her is Madelyn Quebec. You met this young girl earlier from Nashville, Tennessee. All the way from Nashville, Tennessee, Regina McCrary. Standing next to her is Clydie King. The man over here is playing the keyboards all night long. He may stay here and play keyboards all for you when we're gone. Anyway, from Birmingham, Alabama, Willie Smith. On the guitars tonight, Fred Tackett, Steve Ripley. On the bass, Tim Drummond. On the drums, Jimmy Lee Keltner from Tulsa, Oklahoma. I tell you we came a long way. And it hasn't been easy to recover from that trip either. So we're gonna go now. If you ever come over to the States, the United States, you come and see us; we're usually playing some place all the time. Somewhere. You drive safely now. Be good. Be good, yeah! (during the end of In The Garden)

BobTalk

Thank you, This is another song about animals. I wanna say hello to Max Jones if he's here tonight. Mr. Max Jones.

Thank you. This is a new song we just did about a month ago. I don't know when it'll be released. It's called Dead Man Dead Man When Will You Arise.

Thank you. I wanna hand things over now to Carolyn Dennis. Girl who's been with me now for about four years. She came with me last time. She was here with me. And I know you liked her and you'll love her now. Anyway, its Carolyn Dennis is gonna sing a song for you called Walking Around Heaven All Day.

Oh, people have always ..., last few years they've been asking me "sing an old song". There's a whole lot of people that love to live in the past. I do it some times myself. Anyhow, this is a real old song. I used to sing this song before I wrote any songs. I'll try this, don't do this too often any more, but I'll try it anyway. (plays Barbara Allen) Thank you. I used to sing that at the Troubadour Club, I don't know if it's still there. It used to be there. Anyway, this is another song just recently recorded. About a comedian named Lenny Bruce. I don't know why, sometimes I write these songs. This song I decided to keep. I wrote this in about two minutes. I figured well, if it's that easy I should keep it. So I'll keep this song.

Thank you. This is a song that we recently recorded, may come out soon, I hope. Called you don't want a love that's pure, you wanna drown love, you want a Watered Down Love.

Thank you. We gotta get out of here now. I know you wanna know who all these young ladies are up here. On the left you met earlier Carolyn Dennis. Standing next to her is Madelyn Quebec, Regina McCrary, Clydie King. On the organ, keyboards tonight, all the way from Portsmouth, Virginia. He had to swim across the English Channel to get here, arrived early this morning, Willie Smith. On guitars, Fred Tackett, Steve Ripley. On the drums tonight from Tulsa, Oklahoma, Jim Keltner. Bass guitar, Tim Drummond. I hope we played something that you came to hear. I know I've written a lot of songs so I know I must have left something out. I hope I put something in. (at the end of In The Garden)

Thank you. Here's a song we just recently recorded called Dead Man Dead Man When Will You Arise.

I want to say there's a man sitting there in the third row staring at me all night with binoculars. He's at the wrong end of the binoculars. I don't see him down there now. (before Solid Rock)

Thank you. This is a new song off this new record, so called new album. Should be out soon. It's called Watered Down Love. You don't want a love that's pure, you wanna drown love, you want a watered-down Love.

Thank you. I called George Harrison, he's an old friend of mine. He was out in his garden. So I wanna dedicate this to him. (before In The Garden)

All right, I wanna introduce you to the lady on the far left. That's Carolyn Dennis, who you heard earlier, Carolyn Dennis. Oh that's really great. Standing next to her is Madelyn Quebec. Standing next to her is Regina McCrary. Standing next to her is Clydie King. Standing next to her is Tim Drummond. I think that's all the band I'm gonna introduce tonight. Does anybody care who's playing the keyboards? From Portsmouth, Virginia, Leon Russell! Actually that's Willie Smith. On guitars, Fred Tackett and Steve Ripley. Another part on the keyboards, Willie Smith. On the drums tonight, a legend in his own time, played on a lot of hit records. I'm sure you've heard of him. What was that last hit record you played on? Woolly Bully! Anyway, from Tulsa, Oklahoma, Jim Lee Keltner. Well, we gotta get out of here now, pleased to see you. I hope that we played something that you came to hear. If not, we're gonna be here tomorrow night, and the next night and the night after that. You're bound to hear something that you know one of the nights. We'll see you again. (at the end of In The Garden)

Thank you, Maggie's Farm. I think it still exists. (after Maggie's Farm)

This is a new song off a forthcoming record album. I hope it's on the album anyway. It's called Dead Man, Dead Man When Will You Arise. I wrote quite a few new songs I thought I'd play them because I don't know how much longer I'll be playing new songs. People wanna hear the old songs. I was thinking of cutting out all the new songs. So I can play, I'm gonna play just older stuff. This time here in London I'm gonna play all the new songs so in case they never get heard again. Dead Man, Dead Man When Will You Arise.

Thank you. We gonna play you another, this is Carolyn Dennis. Who's gonna sing a song called Walking Around Heaven All Day. Carolyn Dennis. [Carolyn Dennis: "I'd like to dedicate this to Bob and all the members in the band and especially Miss Clydie King."]

We're gonna play a real old song here. A song I used to sing before I used to write any songs. I used to sing this in the Troubadour. I don't know if that club is still called The Troubadour? Well it's the same way we used to sing it then, hasn't changed a bit. (before Mary From The Wild Moor)

Thank you. Thank you for coming tonight. I wanna introduce the lady on the lady on the left one more time, Miss Carolyn Dennis. Standing next to her is Madelyn Quebec, Regina McCrary, Clydie King. On the keyboards tonight, Willie Smith. Playing the guitars tonight, on my right, Fred Tackett, playing the other guitar is Steve Ripley. On the bass guitar tonight, from Cincinnati Ohio, the walls of Jericho, Tim Drummond. On the drums, a legend in his own time for real, Jim Keltner. All right now, I hope we can come back here next year. I know we'll be here tomorrow night and the night after that. We can't come over here enough. Thank you. (at the end of In The Garden)

Thank you! We're gonna gonna take things down down here just a little bitthis is Regina McCrary from Nashville Tennessee She's gonna sing a song for you called 'Keep On Falling In Love Until I Get It Right'.

Here's another animal song. It's about a man animal. (before Maggie's Farm)

This is a new song that we've been working on, trying to get it right, called Dead Man, Dead Man When Will You Arise.

Thank you! I'm gonna turn the stage over here to Miss Carolyn Denis a singer who's been singing with me for about four years now. She came last time I was her, she was here with me to. I think she sang the same song ... she's gonna sing a song called 'Walking Around Heaven All Day' ... Carolyn Dennis.

Ladies and gentlemen, thank you. On the far left over there a lady you met earlier. Carolyn Dennis. Carolyn Dennis from Savannah, Georgia. Standing next to her is Madelyn Quebec. Next to her, from Nashville, Tennessee of course, is Regina McCrary. Well, we hope that we played something that you came to hear. I know I wrote so many songs that I can't possibly play them all, but we're gonna be here tonight and tomorrow night so if we didn't play some thing you came to hear tonight we may be doing it tomorrow night or the next night. And if we don't do it then I hope we come back next year. I forgot to introduce Clydie King who walked out. Clydie. Get Clydie to come back out. This girl really is a genius, I wanna introduce Clydie King. On the keyboards tonight, from Portsmouth, Virginia, been here many times, he's almost English actually. Willie Smith. An on the guitars tonight, Fred Tackett and Steve Ripley. Playing the bass guitar tonight, from Cincinnati, Ohio, Tim Drummond. He loves to play it. On the drums, a legend in his own time, for real, Jim Lee Keltner. Goodnight now! (at the end of In The Garden)

BobTalk

Regina McCrary: Yes, you can put your hands together with us tonight! (before Show Me the Way)

Thank you. Ha! We're going to keep on with this song by Regina McCrary from Nashville, Tennessee, who's going to sing a song called "Keep Falling in Love Until I Get it Right".

Thank you. That was the latest animal song that I wrote. This is the first animal song I ever wrote. (after Man Gave Names To All The Animals)

This is a new song we just recorded about a month ago. Should be out in about a year or so. Called Dead Man, Dead Man When Will You Arise.

Thank you very much. I want to turn the stage over here right now to Carolyn Dennis, who's been with me for four years, she was with me the last time with me. She's going to sing a song called "Walking Around Heaven All Day". Carolyn Dennis! (before Walk Around Heaven All Day)

Thank you. All right, that was Clydie King. We're gonna try a song off this new album of ours. Forthcoming, so called new album. [Audience Lay, Lady, Lay!!!] Uh? OK, we'll try and do that later. Anyway, this is the main title song called Shot Of Love. We ain't done this before outside of the aeroplane but we're gonna try it.

Thank you. I wanna do a Dave Mason song, just because I like Dave Mason songs. I don't wanna leave you without doing one Dave Mason song. Which one are we gonna do? (before We Just Disagree)

All right, we're gonna try to sing our new hit single. I'm told they played it on the radio. Anyway. We'll try to do the best that we know, the best we can. Let's go. (before Heart of Mine)

All right. I won't do that again. This is the last time. Anyway this one here's a little easier, it's called "Watered-Down Love". "You don't want a love that's pure, you wanna drown love, you want a watered-down love". One, two, three, four.

Thank you. Thank you very much for coming here. I wanna introduce to the fellow playing keyboards all night long. On the keyboards, William T Smith from, Portsmouth, Virginia. It's the first time out of the country for him. Well, over left next to him, You met this girl already, Carolyn Dennis. All these girls can sing, you know that. Standing next to her is Madelyn Quebec. On the guitars tonight, Fred Tackett. And don't jump all over yourself now. On the lead guitar, Steve Ripley. Young lady on the left is Regina McCrary. Standing next to her is Clydie King. We try to play a whole lot of stuff when we're here just now, but I know we left some things out. If we come back, we'll do those. I wish we were going to be here tomorrow, we could do all the stuff we started doing ..., left out. Anyway, ... oh well, thank you. Ha-ha! On the bass guitar tonight, he-he, you're gonna have to go out a long way to hurt me! On bass guitar is Tim Drummond. And on the drums, you know who's on the drums by now, no really, I think this band's one of the best ever, what do you think? [loud cheers] I get tired of reading things I don't like. I sometimes like to ask you what you think. Anyway, on the drums from Tulsa, Oklahoma, by way of San Antonio, Texas, Mr. Jim Keltner. I wanna thank you once again. Goodnight. (at the end of In The Garden)

Sounds as well as to be born again! (after Blowin' in the Wind)

Notes

Live debuts of Shot Of Love and Heart Of Mine.

This show was recorded by Dylan's crew.

The statement "you're gonna have to go out a long way to hurt me!" was prompted the following incident. A bottle was thrown from the front of the audience, presumably by a drunk intolerant of Bob's "Born Again" songs. The bottle hit Dylan's guitar. The noise can be heard on the recording.

Thank you. I hope you can hear us. This is Regina McCrary. She's from Nashville, Tennessee. She's gonna sing a song called, what? Keep On Falling In Love Till I Get It Right.

Thank you, this is another what you call animal song. I'm gonna record a whole album pretty soon of animal songs. (before Maggie's Farm)

This is a new song off our new record called Dead Man, Dead Man When Will You Arise. This is a song about myself. I was walking right down the road about ten or twelve years ago now. I just recall I wrote this song while looking into the mirror. Dead Man, Dead Man When Will You Arise.

Thank you. Thank you, that was Slow Train Coming. I wanna introduce a young lady to you right now who's been with me for about four or five years. Miss Carolyn Dennis. She was here with me last time, this time she's gonna sing a song called Walking Around Heaven All Day. Carolyn Dennis.

Thank you. That was a song that's just been released. This is an old song that I used to sing a long time ago. I think it's an old folk ballad of some kind. Scottish ballad or English ballad. One of those ballads. See if I can do it like I used to do it. (before Barbara Allen)

Thank you for coming down here tonight. I wanna introduce the lady on my left one more time, Miss Carolyn Dennis. Standing next to her is Madelyn Quebec. Standing next to her is Regina McCrary. Standing next to her is Clydie King. On the keyboards tonight, give him a big hand ladies and gentlemen, he deserves it, Willie Smith. Like you did before. Standing next to him on guitar, Fred Tackett. Next to him, Steve Ripley. I know the Devil's confused tonight. Anyway, on my left on the bass guitar from Cincinnati, Ohio. A real warm bass guitar player in the world, last and left, Tim Drummond. On the drums, a man who's played with me in spirit forever really, Jim Keltner. Oh, we've gonna have to get out now. I hope we can come back again next year. I know we'll be here tomorrow night. Then we'll be back sometime again soon to. Goodnight. (at the end of In The Garden)

BobTalk

Thank you. I wanna introduce you to a girl singer who's been with me for awhile from Nashville, Tennessee. Gonna sing a song for you called Keep On Falling In Love Until I Get It Right, and that's just what she's doing,

Thank you. Thank you very much- Here's another animal song, about a man animal. (before Maggie's Farm)

It's raining out there, it's raining here too. (before The Times They Are A-Changin')

Thank you. This here is Willie Smith. He's gonna sing a song he want to sing so bad, I can't (...) sing tonight. Willie Smith's gonna sing a song called Saved By The Grace Of Your Love. Ladies and gentlemen, Willie Smith.

Give him a hand, Willie Smith! Speaking about love, here's another song about love, watered-down love.

Bob Dylan Still On The Road: 1981 Europe Summer Tour

Thank you for coming ladies and gentlemen, we're gonna be here tomorrow night too. On the left one more time, Carolyn Dennis. Standing next to her Madelyn Quebec. Regina McCrary. On the keyboards, Willie Smith, backing vocals sometimes, Clydie King. On guitar Fred Tackett. On the other guitar there's Steve Ripley. Can't leave out the bass player and the drummer. On the bass from Cincinnati, Ohio, Mr. Tim Drummond. He's about as old as I am. On the drums, Jim Keltner. All right, we're going now. Hope I come back some other time I could spend a couple of months here, it's so nice. Goodnight. (at the end of In The Garden)

Do you want to go home now? Get out of here? Get out of the rain? Thank you. (before Knockin' On Heaven's Door)

Thank you. We're gonna slow things down just a little bit. This is Regina McCrary. She usually sings with me every night. She's gonna sing a song called Keep On Falling In Love Until I Get It Right.

Thank you. This is another animal song. Thinking about animals, a farm song. My three favorite songs. Love songs, farm songs, baby songs. (before Maggie's Farm)

..... a new album we just made, should be released soon, called, Shot Of Love. This is a song called Dead Man Dead Man When Will You Arise, 1, 2.

Thank you I wanna introduce another young girl tonight, Carolyn Dennis. Been singing with me for now five years, she was here last time I was here, four or five years anyway. She sings this every place we go every night. One of the great singers of the end times Carolyn Dennis.

Thank you. Mr. Tambourine Man that was Steve Ripley on lead guitar. He's been waiting all his life to play that part.

Thank you. This is Willie Smith on the keyboards up here. He's gonna sing a song for you now called Saved By The Grace Of Your Love. Willie Smith is gonna sing this one.

Yeah. This is another song off that new album that's coming out called Watered Down Love. You don't want a love that's pure, you wanna drown love. You want a watered-down love.

Thank you very much for coming. I want to introduce the keyboard player to you now, Willie Smith. From Baton Rouge, Louisiana. On guitar tonight, Fred Tackett. I hope we played something that you came to hear. I know we left a lot out that I personally wanted to hear. I hope we come back, when we come back I'll play it again. Anyway on the left here, you met her earlier, Carolyn Dennis. Standing next to her is Madelyn Quebec. From Nashville, the music capital of the USA, Regina McCrary. Playing the other guitar tonight is Steve Ripley, from Little Rock, Arkansas. On backing vocals and instrumental miss Clydie King. On the drums tonight, give him a big hand, ladies and gentlemen, he come a long way, he's been around, Jim Keltner. On the bass guitar, last of the best, and the best of the last, Tim Drummond. Thank you. Thank you very much. Thank you, this is Regina McCrary who's been singing with me for a while now. Every place we go she sings at least one song a night. She's gonna sing a song called "Keep on Falling in Love Until I Get it Right".

Thank you. That was an old Dave Mason song I know. I thought we'd do it. We just did a new album called Shot Of Love. This is the main title song called Shot Of Love.

Thank you! I'd like to introduce a young lady who worked with me for about six years now. Every night we play she sings, too. Carolyn Dennis, she's going to sing a song called "Walking Around Heaven All Day". Carolyn Dennis!

Thank you, that was Clydie King. (after Let's Begin)

All right, we're gonna ..., I want the keyboards man to sing one here, he wants to sing so bad, he's been bothering me now for over a week. He's gonna sing a song that he wrote himself, called Saved By The Grace Of Your Love. Willie Smith on keyboards.

Hey that was Willie Smith on vocals. Oh, speaking about love, here's another song about love. Watered-Down Love. You don't want a love that's pure, you wanna drown love, you want a watered-down love.

*All right, we don't wanna leave tonight, without playing this here song. If the microphone's working. (plays Heart Of Mine)
Thank you! That's a single. Our so called new single.*

Thank you. On the background vocals tonight, as every night, on the left Carolyn Dennis. Of course standing next to her is Madelyn Quebec, Regina McCrary. Clydie King. We gonna say goodnight now. I hope we played something that you came to hear. Anyway, on the guitar tonight Fred Tackett. On the other guitar, Steve Ripley. Both these guys are gonna give lessons right after the show. Right out there. On the drums tonight, I can't get away without introducing my drummer. From Tulsa, Oklahoma, I could say a whole lot more things about him, but I won't. Anyway, Jim Keltner. On the keyboards, Willie Smith. If any of you are ever, ever Stateside we're usually playing someplace somewhere all the time so. You go and see us in one of them States. There's forty-eight or fifty States I guess there's fifty of them now, or sixty. There's fifty or sixty. Alright on the bass guitar, from Cincinnati Ohio. And he plays the part him self. The only member of the band that's older than me, Tim Drummond. That's all right, I said a mistake. The only member of this band that's younger than me. Ha-ha. But I'm catching up to them. Goodnight! All right, thank you. This is another animal song. Down on the farm. (before Maggie's Farm)

We've got a ..., I just made a new album an it's coming out soon, called Shot Of Love. This is the main title song called Shot Of Love.

Thank you. We just met somebody in the last town who's a real good singer. She's gonna come on here. Usually we meet people who wanna sing an stuff like that. Anyway, we met this woman in the last town. She's a young girl sixteen years old. Her names Janine Smith. I think she's gonna be a big star someday. I don't know for sure of that, but she might be. Right now she don't have a record contract, but if there's any record producers out there looking for somebody to sign she's be good to sign. Her names Janine Smith, she's gonna sing a song right now, what's called ? You Light Up My Life, Janine Smith. She lives in Holland now, give her a nice hand.

All right, we're gonna do another song off this new album, we, we just did. Should be coming out any day now. It's called Watered-Down Love. You don't want a love that's pure you wanna drown, love you want a watered-down Love One, two, one, two, three, four.

Thank you. Thank you for coming out. On the left over here I wanna introduce one more time, Carolyn Dennis. Standing next to her, Madelyn Quebec. Regina McCrary. And Clydie King. Thank you. I wanna introduce the girls out here first. On my left over here is Carolyn Dennis. Give her a big hand. She's been with me ah, about 6 years. That's longer than most people. Oh, standing next to her is Madelyn Quebec. Let me see, oh yes, I almost forgot Regina. This is Regina McCrary from Nashville Tennessee. I hope we played something that you came to hear. If we didn't this time, if we come back, we sure will next time. Anyway, from Dallas, Texas, my singing companion, Miss Clydie King. On the keyboards tonight, a very talented man, writes and sings all oh, of his own things. Who knows, he may come here by himself someday. If he does, I want you to remember his name, Willie Smith. On guitar tonight, from Tulsa, Oklahoma, Fred

Tackett. Standing next to him, on guitar, from Birmingham, Colorado, Steve Ripley. All right, I wanna say hello tonight to Brigitte Bardot, sitting someplace around over there. I'm not gonna say exactly where, cause I think she'll be mobbed. But anyway, I hope we played good tonight for you Brigitte. Anyway on the drums. Ha ha no, really if you, probably heard this man many times before. Probably just didn't know it. He's never had his name on any record he's played on. Cause he played as the drummer and nobody ever pays much attention to who the drummer is. But in our band the drummer is very important. And I wanna introduce him and I know you'll appreciate what he does, Jim Keltner. On bass guitar. I couldn't say enough about this man, and I won't. From Cincinnati, Ohio, the youngest member of this band. Ladies and gentlemen Tim Drummond. I wanna say good night. Thanks for coming out. (at the end of In The Garden)

All right we just, we just made a new record before coming over here called, Shot Of Love. Oh, by the way, I'd like to thank, what's their name? Edward, ... Edwin and Shirley Trucking (?). Nice young couple, they been following us all the way from Toulouse, France I think. Anyway we want to salute them and thank them a whole lot. I guess they ..., you know. Well anyway, this is called Shot Of Love. It's the main title song. I hope they release it as a single, I'm not sure, but they might an they might not. So.

Thank you. I wanna say hello to my good friend David Oppenheim, if he's someplace sitting out there. Stand up and take a bow David, if you're out there. (before Mr. Tambourine Man)

Thank you. We're all ready to go now. I wanna thank you for bearing with us tonight through the lighting shortage. I hope somebody saw the light tonight anyway. I hope I did. Anyway, I wanna introduce this group to you now. Over on the left, young girl who's been with me now for oh, many many years, Miss Carolyn Dennis. Standing next to her is another girl who's been with me just as long, Madelyn Quebec. This young lady, she's been with me the shortest time, but the most distance, from Nashville, Tennessee Regina McCrary. I wanna thank Patrick Stansfield, let's give him a big hand. I know you never heard of him but clap for him anyway. But ..., he gets the stage here set up, we been doing all these shows. We're going back to the US pretty soon, I hope we can come back. If we do you come and see us, and if you're ever in the United States come and see us there, we're usually some place all the time. From Dallas, Texas, I wanna introduce to you, a great singer, Clydie King. On the keyboards, from Wilmington, Delaware, give him a big hand, Willie Smith. Also from Wilmington Delaware, on guitar, Fred Tackett. All right, on guitar from Marseilles, Steve Ripley. He's not from Marseilles actually, he's moving there next month. Anyway, on drums I wanna introduce to you one of the best drummers around, Jim Keltner. Ahh yes! On bass guitar, I know you been dying to know who this man is. Anyway ha-ha-ha. This man knows more songs than I do. Anyway, on bass guitar Tim Drummond. Boom boom. Well, I've enjoyed being here, I'm glad to say that. Thank you very much. (at the end of In The Garden)
