Thanks everybody, I want to introduce you to my band's guitar player here, Larry Campbell. He just bought that jacket here! That's right, he bought it down on the beach. On the drums, give him a hand — David Kemper. Playing the steel guitar is Bucky Baxter, he's the former mayor of Bluefield, West Virginia. It's very handy to have one of those kind of guys in the group now. And then on bass guitar tonight is Tony Garnier. All right! I want to thank Ani DiFranco and BR-459 whom you've seen before. 5, 8, 10, 13, 14 Larry Campbell & Bucky Baxter (backup vocals).

BobTalk

We have Rick Danko who's here from The Band. And he's looking good, he just got himself out of a nasty scrape. I think he's looking better than ever really. This is a song we recorded a long while back. (before This Wheel's On Fire).

It's Rick Danko!!! From The Band!!! Alright, on my left here is Bucky Baxter playing the steel guitar. Next to him is Tony Garnier, he's playing the bass. The guy who's playing the drums is David Kemper and on the guitar on my right is Larry Campbell. And we want to think Ani DiFranco for playing earlier and of course BR5-49! (after This Wheel's on Fire)

6-8, 13 acoustic with the band.

5, 8, 14 Larry Campbell & Bucky Baxter (backup vocal).

BobTalk

That was Neil Young's version of Shelter From the Storm.

We're...we're not trying to fool you with feedback. We're not trying to make you think we're doing something. (before Stuck Inside of Mobile)

I wanna see everybody clapping! Yeah, my drummer wants to see everybody clapping. He says if you ain't clapping, get outta here! He's just drumming, though, I'm not sure how long he's gonna stay. (after Stuck Inside of Mobile)

Notes

Version 1:

Then during the band introductions after Tears Of Rage someone rushes on stage and the guy next to the taper remarks, "awww, no, he's kissing his feet!" then after a pause Bob goes back to the intro's and starts to say that Larry is the drummer before correcting himself.

Version 2

Prior to the start of Leopard-Skin Pill-Box Hat, several members of the audience rushed the stage. One person fell to his knees at Dylan's feet and kissed his boot, Bob just shrugged and looked confused while the audience cheered. A woman jumped on stage and threw her arms around Dylan, they appeared to be talking, and it took about one minute for security to pull her off of him. He was laughing at that point and strolling around the stage.

BobTalk

I want to introduce the gentleman on my right playing the guitar, Larry Campbell. Playing on the drums tonight, keeping the beat together is David Kemper. Over on steel guitar is Bucky Baxter. His daughter is here tonight. We want to say helo to his daughter wherever she is. Can't remember her name but I know she's out there somewhere. There she is! Right there!! She's gonna jump on stage you know, too. She's gonna jump on stage and throw her arms around us! On bass guitar tonight Tony Garnier. I want to thank Ani Defranco for playing earlier tonight. She's fantastic! We all know she is. And BR5-49 who we heard right here, who's gonna be around a loooong time! (before Leopard-Skin Pill-Box Hat).

Yees! I don't know this young lady's name, but she's pretty good eh? All right!!! (after Leopard-Skin Pill-Box Hat).

Thank you everybody! I wanna introduce the gentleman on my right, playing the guitar, Larry Campbell. And on the drums tonight, keeping the beat, David Kemper. Playing steel guitar is...His daughter and his son is right there. I think I wanna introduce them too but I forget their names. Anyway, Bucky Baxter, he's playing the steel guitar. And Tony Garnier is playing the bass guitar tonight. There is a distinguished gentlemen here who came ... I want to introduce him – named Alan Lomax. I don't know if many of you have heard of him [Audience applause.] Yes, he's here, he's made a trip out to see me. I used to know him years ago. I learned a lot there and Alan ... Alan was one of those who unlocked the secrets of this kind of music. So if we've got anybody to thank, it's Alan. Thank you, Alan. (before Highway 61 Revisited).

Thanks everybody! I wanna thank you on behalf of Ani DiFranco, too, who was up earlier, and of course BR5-49, they were up earlier too, but these guys are gonna be here for a while of course. (after Forever Young)

Daniel Lanois is here tonight, we made some records together. We just made a new record. Anyway I made this old record a while back. One of the songs on it goes something like this. It just goes exactly like this! (before What Good Am I?).

This is the autobiographical part of the show right now. (before I'm A Rovin' Gambler).

Here's a request we're gonna do. It is my fashion statement. I can't remember who <mumble> sitting right out there. (before Leopard-Skin Pill-Box Hat).

I wanna say hello to my good friend Tony Glover who's here tonight. Wherever you are Tony! (before You Ain't Goin' Nowhere).

That was the autobiographical part of the show. I wanna say hello to my good friend Larry who's here. (after I'm A Rovin' Gambler).

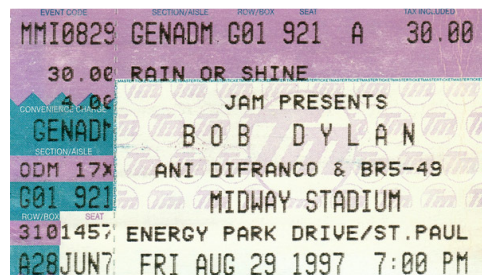

I'll tell you. You can't sing and play like that unless you come from around here somewhere! (after Tangled Up In Blue).

Thanks everybody. I want to introduce the guitar player, so you know him, on my right, Mr. Larry Campbell, give him a hand! He's been playing his heart out for you. On the drums tonight, David Kemper. And on steel guitar, the former mayor of Bluefield, West Virginia, Bucky Baxter. Playing bass guitar tonight is Tony Garnier as always, drives me wild. I want to thank Ani DiFranco, the dynamic Ani DiFranco. And of course my favorite group, outside of the Wallflowers of course — BR5-49! (after This Wheel's on Fire)

Notes

Larry is of course old friend Lerry Keegan.
