1 Introduction

A new year, a new album, a new tour. For once Bob Dylan did things in the expected order. First he recorded a new album, then he hit the road to promote it. Only, CBS didn't grasp this new of approach of his and forgot to release it till after the summer tour in Europe, much to Dylan's disappointment and irritation. The new album, Shot Of Love, was described by him as his best since Blonde On Blonde. This year also saw the return of some secular Bob Dylan love songs as well as a few last gospel songs. It was the fourth year in a row that he was touring, but it was to be the last for two years and the last for five years in the US.

2 1981 At A Glance

3 The 1981 Calendar

- 26 March The recording of Shot Of Love starts at Rundown Studios in Santa Monica, California. Angelina is recorded but eventually fails to make the final release. It is released exactly ten years later on The Bootleg Series.
- 27 March Second Shot Of Love recording session. The Groom's Still Waiting At The Altar is run through at least eleven times.
- 31 March Third Shot Of Love recording session is used to work on Caribbean Wind.
- 1 April The 4th Shot Of Love recording session takes place in a new studio, Cream Studio in Los Angeles and consists largely of loose jams and work-outs of half-finished songs.
- 2 April Yet another studio is tried for the 5th Shot Of Love recording session, United Western Studio A. Again this is largely a work-out session. Material from this session and the Cream Studio session has been circulating among collectors as “1980 Work Tape” and it’s content has been dated from 1980 to 1984. Please refer to the corresponding session pages for details.
- April A number of studios are tried during April and some of the songs appear on the “1980 Work Tape”.
- 23-30 April Recording continues for the new album continues at the Clover Recorders studio in Los Angeles. You Changed My Life from 23 April and Need A Woman from 27 April are later released on The Bootleg Series. Caribbean Wind from 30 April is released on Biograph.
- 1-15 May In three different recording sessions at the Clover Recorders studio the songs that make up the Shot Of Love album are recorded.

- 10-14 June The Shot Of Love tour starts with a show at the Hoffman Estates in Chicago and is followed by three more "warm-up" shows in US before the European tour starts in France. Dead Man, Dead Man, Watered-Down Love, Lenny Bruce and In The Summertime from the new album get their first live treating.
- 12 June A series of transatlantic telephone interviews are organized to promote the return to Europe:
- with Tim Blackmore at the Capitol radio in London, broadcast 15 June
 - with Yves Bigot at Radio Europe 1, Paris, broadcast in parts 22 and 23 June
 - with Paul Gambaccini at Radio One, BBC, broadcast in the 'Rock On' program 20 June
- 21 June The tour in Europe starts with a show in Toulouse, France. All shows are recorded by Dylan's crew, except the show in London 30 June.
- 23 June Let It Be Me is played live for the first time during the show in Colombes, France. This song is later released as a single in Europe only.
- 26 June – 1 July Dylan plays six shows in Earls Court, London. Shot Of Love and Heart Of Mine get their live debuts at the last show.
- 2 July Dave Herman interviews Dylan at the White House Hotel in London. The interview is broadcast by WNEW-FM Radio in New York on 27 July.
- 9 July A new gospel song, Jesus Is The One, is played at the show in Drammen, Norway. It remains unreleased.
- 13 July After having seen a fake interview in a Danish paper, Dylan calls a press conference at the Maritime Hotel in Travemünde, West Germany. The press conference starts at 11pm and goes on for two hours.
- 14 July For the first time since 1978 there was no opening gospel songs by the backup singers at the show in Bad Segeberg, West Germany. They return the next night but are then dropped for the rest of the shows in 1981.
- 20 July Dylan is interviewed by Neil Spencer. The interview is published New Musical Express 15 August.
- 25 July During the final show in Avignon, France, two tragic accidents occur. First a member of the crowd gets killed after falling into the electric cables, causing total blackout, and in the resulting confusion a girl falls off a wall and gets killed too. Dylan and the band improvise acoustic rhythms on stage until power is restored.
- 12 August Shot Of Love is released.
- 1 September Heart Of Mine/Let It Be Me single is released in Europe only.
- 11 September Release of Heart Of Mine/The Groom's Still Waiting At The Altar single.
- September The Dave Herman interview from July 2 is released on the promotional album Dylan London Interview July 1981
- 16-17 October The American part of the Shot Of Love tour starts with two shows at the University of Wisconsin in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
- 19, 21 October Dylan's wheelchair-bound friend Larry Kegan sings the Chuck Berry's No Money Down as the last encore while Dylan plays tenor saxophone for the first time in concert.
- 10 November The show in New Orleans, Louisiana is recorded by Dylan's crew. This show features the only known version of Thief On The Cross, one of Dylan's last gospel songs. Heart Of Mine is later released on Biograph. The recording is remixed by Daniel Lanois in 1989 and Dead Man, Dead Man is released on CD-single in October 1989.
- 21 November Last fall show takes place in Lakeland, Florida. It is one of the longest Dylan shows ever, 28 songs including six encores. This show features the first live rendition of Every Grain Of Sand, making it the seventh song from the Shot Of Love to be performed during 1981.

4 Shot Of Love

Shot Of Love took a long time to record and a large number of songs were recorded and abandoned. The recordings started in late March and continued in a number of studios until mid May. No recordings from the many March and April sessions were included on the final release. Most astonishing is the fact that a number of great songs were left off like Angelina, Caribbean Wind, Need A Woman.

The sessions resulted in at least 212 recordings of 54 different songs and a large number of unidentified songs.

Here's a breakdown:

	#	takes
released songs	15	125
outtakes	35	82
covers	4	5
unidentified		34
Total	54	246

Most of the sessions were produced by Chuck Plotkin. This is a summary of these sessions:

Songs

One new gospel song, written in Oslo during the tour, Jesus Is The One, is performed eight times with different lyrics each time. City Of Gold and Covenant Women are both played for the last time.

Some rare acoustic renditions from this part of the tour:

Blowin' In The Wind

It's All Over Now, Baby Blue

It's Alright, Ma (I'm Only Bleeding)

Love Minus Zero/No Limit

She Belongs To Me

The Times They Are A-Changin'.

Rare covers:

Barbara Allen – with the band!

Fever,

Here Comes The Sun – first verse only, Dylan changes to Girl from North Country when he realizes he does not know the words

Let It Be Me – duet with Clydie King.

Mary From The Wild Moor – "a real old song"

The "Unknown Instrumental" is played for no apparent reason. The fact that Dylan says hello to Brigitte Bardot during the concert has led to the suggestion that this is a Bardot movie theme.
